

Lunchtime Recital by Cheltenham Choral Society

Welcome!

Enjoy some amazing choral and organ music during your lunchtime in the wonderful surroundings of Gloucester Cathedral. Our conductor today is Paul Collacott, and Alison Howell is providing the organ accompaniment and solo piece.

Admission is free, and there will be a retiring collection.

Thank you for your support.

About Us

Cheltenham Choral Society is a friendly, amateur choir with a long-standing reputation for providing a top-quality experience for both audiences and singers.

In 2018 we celebrated our 80th Anniversary!

We are a non-audition choir of around 55 members, who perform at public concerts in venues in and around Cheltenham. Our concert programmes are drawn largely from the standard classical, Romantic and Twentieth Century choral repertoire, and are accompanied by piano, organ or chamber orchestra. We rehearse on Wednesdays from 7.30 pm to 9.30 pm at Bethesda Methodist Church, Great Norwood Street, Cheltenham, GL50 2AP.

For further details of the choir and our activities, please take a look at our website cheltenhamchoralsociety.org.uk

We hope you enjoy our Recital!

Conductor: Paul Collacott
Organist: Alison Howell

Gloria 1st movement – Vivaldi

O thou the central Orb – Wood

Ave Verum – Elgar

Te Deum – Stanford

I was Glad – Parry

Sacerdotes Domini – Byrd

Finale from Sonata #1 op 42 - Guilmant

Sicut Cervus – Palestrina

Locus Iste – Bruckner

How lovely is thy dwelling place – Brahms

Achieved is the glorious work – Haydn

Cantique de Jean Racine – Faure

Hallelujah – Handel